FLORIDA EAST COAST RAILWAY TO KEY WEST

Construction Work Upon The Last Stretch Nearing Completion Rapidly Under Existing Conditions.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Work upon the Florida East Coast Railway Co.'s extension between Miami and Key West, the ultimate terminal of the road, is progressing rapidly, and present estimates have it that the road will be completed early in 1910. The most difficult sections have been constructed, and the work now going on over the last section, between Knight's Key and Key West, forty-six miles, is in the nature of a general finishing up. The entire extension from Miami to Key West, a distance of 150 miles, is a unique and expensive structure, some sections of it having cost as much as $900,000 per mile. The first thirty miles of road are laid over a rocky ridge known as the Biscayne Pineland, at the end of which is Homestead, a small town which, since 1905, has been the terminal of the road from Jacksonville. From Homestead the line passes out upon solid keys of coral to and across Key Largo and the several keys to the southwest, Long Island, Windley's Key and Upper Matecumbe, on to Long Key, Key Vaccas, Knight's Key, Bahia Honda, a long line of smaller, nameless keys, reaching to Big Pine Key, and from there to Key West. In all, the 150 miles of extension include six miles of solid concrete viaduct, eighty-one miles of embankment, which conveys the track at a height of thirty feet above mean low water level, and eight fixed and two draw bridges, the latter permitting a 40-foot wide passage in thirty feet of water on either side of the bridge abutments. The longest viaduct is the one which carries the line to Long Key, a solid concrete structure of 180 arches, and nearly two miles long. This viaduct, like the eighty miles of embankment, is protected from the action of the ocean by a series of interposing keys, the construction of which called for a heavy additional outlay of time and money. This work of protecting the structure embodied many of the most difficult engineering problems encountered. The most difficult and costly section lies in the thirteen-mile stretch between Knight's Key and Big Pine Key, wherein are three viaducts, with an aggregate length of four miles.

Shortly after the opening of the extension to Knight's Key, on February 6, 1908, the steamship company conducting a tri-weekly steamer service between Miami and Havana, discontinued it, and in its stead, a daily service between Knight's Key and Key West and Havana.

After terminal facilities at Key West have been bettered and enlarged, and the Panama canal opened to traffic, the quantity of freight hauled over the Florida East Coast railway line will be determined practically by the physical capacity of the road. Until such time, it is believed that the present steadily accruing freight traffic, and the winter tourist traffic, will be a considerable source of revenue.

The legal passenger fare, as fixed in the charter of the company, is 4 cents a mile during the first fifteen years of operation.

SAD DROWNING ON THE OLD SUWANNEE

LUTHER YANCEY FELL FROM LAUNCH AND MET HIS DEATH.

Out With Party of Friends on Fishing Trip, Which Ended Sadly—Effort to Save Him Was Fruitless.

Information of the drowning of Luther Yancey, a well-known citizen of Trenton, reached this city Monday.

The drowning occurred during Saturday afternoon near Old Town, on the Suwannee river, when the unfortunate man, who was with a party of friends on a fishing trip, fell overboard from the launch. Being unable to swim he sank immediately, and never rose again, the swift current keeping him under.

His companions seeing him fall, and realizing that he was unable to swim, immediately set to work in an effort to save him. Long poles were procured, with the view of extending them should he rise to the surface, but without avail, as nothing was seen of him after he sank for the first time. The body had not been recovered up to Sunday night.

Deceased was forty years of age and leaves a family, a wife and four children. He was a son-in-law of C. C. Duke of Trenton, and the sympathy of the community goes out to the bereaved family, to whom the victim was devoted.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Tribble of Columbia College Delivered Two Fine Sermons Sunday.

The congregation at the First Baptist church Sunday, both morning and evening, had the pleasure of hearing two of the ablest sermons ever delivered from the pulpit of that edifice, these services both being presided over by Dr. H. W. Tribble of Lake City, president of Columbia College, who kindly consented to give the Baptists a day here.

The attendance was not as large as was hoped for, but those who did go heard two most interesting discourses.

The pastor recently called, Rev. Dr. Cloar, will arrive in time to conduct the services next Sunday. This divine comes highly recommended, and will no doubt make the church a fine pastor.

GRADING COMMITTEE REPORTS.

Certificates Will Be Granted to Seven
White and Three Colored Teachers

The grading committee appointed to examine the papers of the applicants for position of teacher for the public schools of Alachua county made their report, and recommended that seven certificates be issued out of sixteen white applicants, and that three certificates be issued out of a total of eleven colored applicants.

Superintendent Kelley gave out this information, but did not specify the grades of certificates to be issued.

Prominent Visitors Here.

Hon. Guy Gillen, postmaster at Lake City, and Hon. J. B. Hodges, member of the Legislature from Columbia county, were in the city Sunday, guests of Hon. Frank Clark. In company with the editor of The Sun the gentlemen were shown over the city behind Congressman Clark's fine horse, with that gentleman holding the reins. Owing to some "whim" of the animal, however, their ride came to a sudden standstill, and Messrs. Gillen and Hodges were compelled to "double quick" on foot to the depot in order to catch the north-bound train. George Ellis later came to the relief of the Congressman and soon discovered that the cause of the animal's refusal to travel was the collar, which was drawn too tight and was choking the breath out of it.

ONE THOUSAND MAYORS TO MEET IN ST. LOUIS

On Occasion of Celebration of One Hundredth Anniversary of Incorporation of That City.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 13.—If a thousand or so American mayors do not have in their possession by October 9th the latest and best ideas on how to run cities, it will not be the fault of the St. Louis Centennial Association and the Civic League of St. Louis. The former has arranged to bring together and entertain at least this number of chief executives of municipalities of the United States during the week that the one hundredth anniversary of the incorporation of St. Louis will be celebrated, beginning October 3rd, and the latter has seized upon the opportunity afforded to have the visitors join in a great conference or series of conferences on problems of city government.

Three thousand invitations are being sent out for this feature of the Centennial celebration, and although it is feared that not more than one mayor in three whose presence is requested will be able to accept, the gathering, nevertheless, will be the most notable of its kind ever held. It is doubtful that half as many city rulers as will attend ever have met together.

Fully appreciating the honor which will be conferred upon St. Louis by this assemblage, the Centennial Association and its coworkers are making every effort to provide appropriate entertainment, and the wives and daughters of the visitors will be especially cared for.

The week will be a busy one for the mayors and those who accompany them, from the day of their arrival, Monday, October 4th, until their departure six days later. For them it will begin with a reception and a luncheon the first day, and will include a banquet, attendance at the Veiled Prophet ball and facilities to see all of the other chief events of the celebration. Among these will be grand pageants daily, and great balloon, airship and aeroplane races.

The reception Monday will be held at City Hall by Mayor Frederick H. Kreismann, who is president of the Centennial Association. Immediately following, at 12:30 p. m., a luncheon will be given at Hotel Jefferson by the Civic League, and other noted visitors who may have arrived will be asked to attend.

After the luncheon an important conference will be held at which the principal topic of discussion will be the "commission" form of municipal government. It is expected that talks will be made by mayors of cities in which the plan already is in operation, notable among which are Des Moines, Iowa, and Galveston, Texas, and opponents of the plan also will speak. The advisability of further formal conferences is under consideration by the officers of the league. It is probable that at least one more day, Tuesday afternoon, on subjects to be selected, will be arranged.

An invitation to and souvenir of the Veiled Prophet ball will be presented to each mayor who accepts an invitation to attend the Centennial celebration. The ball, Tuesday evening, will be held this year in the beautiful new Coliseum, instead of the Merchants' Exchange, permitting a larger and more comfortable attendance than ever heretofore.

The Business Men's League, the chief organization of business men in St. Louis and one of the strongest bodies of its kind in the United States, will be host Wednesday evening at the Coliseum at what will be known as the "American Mayors' banquet," at which the visiting mayors and their wives and other prominent guests to the number of 2,200 are expected to be present. Many other elaborate events of a public nature and free to all will fill out the week.

The Centennial Association has secured reduced railroad rates from virtually all parts of the United States, including the Pacific Coast, for Centennial Week.

Peruchi Relates Incident of Kissing and Missing

Chelso D. Peruchi tells an incident which occurred while he was on a tour which illustrates that the sense of touch is not always infallible, especially when it pertains to such a delicate thing as a kiss.

According to the footlight favorite, two of the men of his company were rivals for the hand of one of the feminine stars of the organization. Whenever traveling, the two actors were to be seen in the same section with the young woman.

They were thus seated one day, when the train went through a long tunnel. The young woman, divining what might be coming, quickly and noiselessly slipped back in the seat so that neither of the men could reach her.

An instant later there was a loud smack. As the car emerged from the tunnel, each man was seen to be smiling complacently.

"I thought I heard a kiss," said the young woman, "but nobody kissed me."

Then the two young men suddenly stared at each other and flushed and looked painfully sheepish.—Tampa Tribune.

Seventeenth Regiment Starts 250-Mile Hike

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 13.—Out at Fort McPherson they are making extensive preparations for the entire Seventeenth regiment to go on a 250-mile hike, beginning on Tuesday, 21st inst.

Colonel J. T. Van Orsdale, in command of the regiment, will take the men and officers upon a new route through Marietta, Canton, Jasper and into the mountains of North Georgia. This will subject the men and wagon trains to the hardest possible test, and it is believed it will prove a most profitable experience.

This practice march will differ from the monthly events in that it will be longer and the entire regiment will go, instead of a battalion at a time, as has been the case.

Colonel Van Orsdale, with the majors commanding the three battalions, are now engaged in working out the maneuvers to which the men will be put.

It is planned for the march to have all the earmarks of real war with the exception of bloodshed.

The command will be divided, and one will be the "enemy" and each will endeavor to circumvent the other, effect a capture or do anything else that is "fair in love and war."

It is expected the maneuvers will cover the three weeks, returning the men to the post in October.

The Eleventh cavalry will go out on a similar march through Tennessee about the same time and in the same way.

Cardinal Gibbons' Views On Excessive Drinking

BALTIMORE, Sept. 13.—"Prohibitionists all over the country are making an effort to suppress the use of intoxicating liquors, and while I hope they will succeed, I don't think they will. Reform must come from within and not from without. You cannot legislate for virtue," said Cardinal Gibbons Sunday during the course of an instruction, following the pledge given to members of a confirmation class.

"Believe me," he continued, "when I tell you there is no vice like that of intemperance, no vice that is followed by such dire results. Its effects are found everywhere, and sometimes even among church men. No church should tolerate a clergyman who drinks.

"Understand me, I do not mean to say that it is a sin to take a little refreshment, but it should be taken at the proper time, and once you are of age you are not to make up for lost time. The Catholic Church does not advocate extremes, but wisely and safely steers in the middle course."

WITH AN UGLY KNIFE WOMAN SLASHED MAN

JIM MAJOR GOT INTO DIFFICULTY WHICH COST HIM HIS LIFE.

Woman Escaped After Deed, But Was Chased and Captured, and Now in Jail at Newberry.

Presumably as the result over a row, which is common throughout the naval stores and phosphate sections of the State, Jim Major, a well-known negro of the West End, lies under six feet of earth, and Alberta McQueen, a woman, is in the Newberry jail charged with the murder.

Particulars of this affair, which occurred Sunday, are meager, but it was learned that the two became engaged in a difficulty at one of the mines of the Mutual Phosphate Company, a few miles from Newberry, when the woman secured an ugly knife and proceeded without ceremony to slash the man, the wounds inflicted penetrating deeply in the flesh, and causing almost instant death, as the breath had left his body before assistance could arrive.

The woman, after the tragedy, succeeded in making her escape, but a posse was soon formed and gave chase, apprehending her in a few hours.

Lee Hughes, through the direction and advice of whom the woman was captured, turned her over to Deputy Sheriff Wynne, when she was taken to Newberry and placed in prison. She will be arraigned before Justice Carter, and will no doubt be remanded to jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury at the fall term of the court.

The West End section, where practically all the phosphate mines are located, has been the scene of much disorderly and unlawful conduct, notwithstanding that the mine superintendents and officials have exercised every precaution to check them. This is due largely to the fact that many of the mines have worked convicts, who are turned loose upon the community, with the result that they tarry in the vicinity, and trouble follows.

DOUGLASS PERRY'S NEW JOB.

Is Now Surveyor for U. S. Government,
Located at Miami.

Friends in this city of Douglass Perry, the bright young son of Mrs. M. Perry, always predicted for him something good, as he was always so industrious in every undertaking. In his books, in his various avocations, Douglass always believed in the adage that whatever was worth doing was worth doing well, and he lived up to this maxim.

Douglass is now employed by the United States Government as a surveyor at a salary of $100 per month and expenses, and is located in canal work with headquarters in Miami. He enjoys the distinction of being the most youthful surveyor in Florida, if not in the entire country, and his good mother has a right to feel proud.

Demands Immediate Attention.
Editor Sun:

We are reliably informed that there are ten waterclosets in the rear of ten small store rooms, situated directly between the public square and the new Government building which are not only without sewerage system, but even sanitary buckets.

These stores are rented principally to negroes and the stench arising therefrom would disgrace the filthiest "slum" in the filthiest city in the United States, and is simply awful. This property is owned and rented by a member of the present City Council, and yet they raise such a "howl" against others less able to supply the necessary requirements. If such condition of things was practiced by others they would be arrested and closets closed, and if such negligence is to be allowed we had better ignore the sewerage system and do away with expense of sanitary officer. "O. Consistency, Thou Art a Jewel!"

This nuisance should have immediate attention.

APPLICANTS FOR CENSUS JOBS MUST STAND EXAMINATION

be filled, as heretofore, by transfers from elsewhere in the service, or by selections from the existing registers of the civil service commission.

Persons now on the registers of the commission are, therefore, eligible for appointment to vacancies on the permanent census roll, but there is no greater opportunity during the decennial period for such appointments than there has been heretofore. The additional temporary positions, authorized by the Thirteenth Census act, except those above $1,200 per annum which will be filled largely by transfers from the permanent census roll, will be given to those persons who pass the test examination on October 23rd. Those now on the registers of the civil service commission, who desire appointment to these additional census places, should take the test examinations, as their present eligibility avails them nothing in respect to appointments to these positions. The fact that a person is on the civil service register does not prevent him from taking this test examination.

Of the four clerical divisions into which the additional census force are separated, class A comprises those engaged in the operation of card punching and card tabulating machines; class B, those operating typewriters, adding machines, or combined typewriter adding machines; class C, those engaged in manuscript tabulation and other clerical work; class D, the subclerical workers. The entrance salary for classes A, B and C, will be $600 per annum, subject to possible promotion to at least $900 a year. The minimum of $600 per year will also apply to employees paid on the piece-price basis. Class D will be messengers, $840; assistant messengers, $720; messenger boys, $480; watchmen, $720; laborers, $720; and charwomen, $240. All original appointments for these classes will be made from the eligible registers furnished by test examination. These will be five in number. The first will carry the names of all persons 18 years of age or over who pass the examination. The second will list those on the first register, who have had previous experience in operating card punching, card tabulating or card sorting machines in census work. The placing of a person's name on this register will not affect his eligibility on the first, third and fourth registers. The third register will contain the names of all those on the first register who make an average of 70 on the

R. H. OWEN RAPIDLY REGAINING HEALTH

DUVAL COUNTY JAIL SEEMS TO AGREE WITH HIM.

When Taken There He Was in Bad
Health Physically and Mentally.
In Good Spirits.

Emaciated, nerve-broken and weakened mentally by the strain through which he had passed, R. H. Owen, the alleged murderer of two people near Gainesville, says The Jacksonville Metropolis, was placed in the Duval county jail during the month of July for safe keeping, Sheriff Ramsey of Alachua county, fearing he would be lynched.

When he reached Jacksonville Owen's condition was such that many who saw him thought he was marked for death in the near future, and he expressed the opinion that he could not live. He had been in constant peril at Gainesville, or thought he was, and his case had been brought before the courts in about as many ways as the celebrated Cooper case, of DeSoto county, and decisions were always averse to the defendant, whose crime was said to have been one of the cold-blooded order.

Owing to good treatment received at the Duval county jail, however, coupled with the fact that fear of lynching has been abated, Owen now appears a decidedly different man, having gained many pounds and added strength and color. When first confined he looked like a shadow behind the bars, but now he resembles a man, and he is hoping strongly that the Supreme Court will so dispose of his case as to give him another chance at his life before a jury.

"If I had been kept in the jail at Gainesville," said Owen to an officer yesterday, "I would have died weeks ago. As it is, I am strong and well, and have regained courage which had almost departed from me on account of my physical condition."

test in typewriter tabulation. Persons who pass this test will, by so doing, improve their chances of appointment. Nor does entry on this affect eligibility on the first, second or fourth register. The fourth register will comprise the names of all the male eligibles on the first register who have expressed a willingness to accept employment in subclerical class D. Entry on this register will not affect eligibility on the first, second or third registers.

The fifth register will be for the boys of 16 and less than 18 years of age who pass the examination and become eligible for appointment as messenger boys. Only one kind of examination will be given all applicants.

Blank application forms and the circular of instructions were ready for distribution by September 10th. As soon as the applicant completes his application in every respect, it should be addressed and forwarded to the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., and not to the Census Bureau. Care should be taken to see that the envelope containing the application is properly addressed and that sufficient postage stamps are affixed. If the application is satisfactory a card will be mailed the applicant and it will admit him to the examination. All applications must be filed in sufficient time to arrange for the examination at the place selected. No request will be granted for an examination otherwise than as scheduled for the cities and States on October 23rd.

S.S.S. CURES ECZEMA, ACNE, TETTER ETC.

While Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum, etc., are troubles which affect the skin, their source is far deeper than the outside cuticle. These affections are caused by irritating humors, or uratic acid in the blood. Such impurities inflame and irritate the delicate net-work of fibrous tissue which lies just beneath the surface of the outer skin, and the inflammatory discharge thus produced is forced out through the pores and glands, and is continually kept up while the blood remains infected. This exudation causes the formation of scales and crusts so often seen in Eczema, and when they are scratched off the flesh is left raw and more susceptible to other infection. It can very readily be seen then that to produce a cure the circulation must be purified and cleansed. This S. S. S. will do. It goes down to the very bottom, removes all humors and impurities, neutralizes the excessive acids of the system and in this way removes the cause of disease. Local applications can only soothe the irritation and assist in keeping the skin clean; they never produce a cure because such treatment does not reach the blood. S. S. S. restores to the thin, acrid blood all its lost properties, makes it pure and rich and enables it to nourish the skin and keep it soft, smooth and healthy. ## WILL CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

EVENT WHICH IS ANTICIPATED WITH DEEPEST INTEREST.

Family Reunion and Dinner, After Which Judge and Mrs. Mason Will Receive Friends Informally.

On Wednesday, September 15, Harvey G. Mason and Mary E. Fuqua will have lived a happy married life for fifty years, the wedding ceremony having been performed in Lewis county, Missouri, on September 15, 1859.

Upon this occasion, on Wednesday next, Judge and Mrs. Mason will celebrate in an informal way the anniversary of their golden wedding, which event will be one of the marked affairs of this city for the present year. It is not often that a couple have the honor and the privilege of observing the fiftieth year of married life, and these excellent people will receive congratulations of numerous friends, not only in this immediate section and State, but from their far-off Missouri home, which they left to come to Florida twenty-nine years ago.

On Wednesday there will be a family reunion, at which will be assembled representatives of four generations. A big family dinner will be served, and it is needless to add that it will be an occasion which will make those around the festive board feel glad.

No invitations will be issued, but in the afternoon the genial Judge and his good frau will be glad to welcome all friends who desire to call and extend congratulations.

Judge and Mrs. Mason, with their children, came to Florida in 1880, settling at Trenton. After Judge Mason had been honored by the people of his county to the election of county judge, he removed to Gainesville, where he has since resided. This was fourteen years ago, since which time he has held that responsible office with satisfaction to the public.

To Judge and Mrs. Mason ten children have been born, eight of whom are living. They are H. D. Mason, Tioga; Mrs. Lizzie S. Jones, Tacoma; Miss Lillie Mason, Mrs. Fanny Richardson and Marvin Mason, Gainesville; George F. Mason, Wagoner,

Mr. Grady came to "lay in" his stock of shoes for the fall trade, and Mr. Wolf, the traveling representative from which he purchased, left with a chuckle of good humor, as he declared he had sold Mr. Grady the best assortment of shoes of any merchant in the county.

The reporter, in company with Col. J. W. Patton and H. J. Dempsey, had the pelasure of a day at the hospitable home of Capt. N. A. Callison at Spring Park Farm last Sunday, and it is needless to add that the day was thoroughly enjoyed. Mr. Callison has always had a reputation for entertaining cleverly, and he was at his best on this occasion. He is making many improvements on the place, which is already one of the finest of its kind in the South.

AT THE NEW BAIRD.

Chas. Manley and Company Entertained a Good Crowd Last Night.

The opening of the season at the New Baird last night proved quite satisfactory, both to the management and the patrons, when Chas. Manley, the clever entertainer, with his new talking motion pictures, appeared to most excellent advantage to a fair-sized audience.

The pictures were clear and concise, and those who witnessed their production felt much better satisfied by reason of the talking feature, which fully explained each scene.

This excellent company will remain here throughout the week, and will no doubt enjoy good audiences, as the show is clean, refined and instructive.

Mr. Manley is the originator of the motion talking pictures, and has appeared to great advantage throughout the entire country.

AUTO DRIVERS ARRAIGNED.

Arrested for Exceeding Speed Limit, and Compelled to Face Mayor.

An interesting session of the mayor's court was held Monday morning, when a number of auto drivers who had exceeded the speed limit and had been arrested, were arraigned, and were fined accordingly for the first offense.

Mayor Davis is determined to enforce this ordinance, and warning is given to all not to exceed the speed limit of ten miles an hour around and within two blocks of the square, if they do not want to pay a fine.

It is asserted by economic students that no able-bodied man need be out of work. The earnest demand for farm hands is a pretty reliable sign of prosperity.

"The Fowler charges disturb the serenity of Uncle Joe," says a headline. No! Not at all. In fact, the distinguished gentleman from Danville, Ill., is using no fouler language than usual.

The Governors of Florida and Georgia are reflecting credit upon the high offices they occupy. Governor Gilchrist has already obtained quite a national reputation through his speeches at Tammany in New York, Spokane, and other points, while Governor Joe Brown's explanation of his refusal to interfere in the W. H. Mitchell case is certainly a credit to him.

It does seem that Columbia, S. C., could put out a better baseball team than she does. Not content with having already brought up the rear twice out of the preceding five years, the Gamecocks got busy and beat the Savannah team out for the tail-end position during the first half of the past season, and Mullane's Jays for the same honor in the latter half, when both Savannah and Jacksonville seemed hopelessly in the cellar. This certainly is a record in which the loyal South Carolina Gamecock fans cannot point with pride.

EDWARD HENRY HARRIMAN.

It is true to say of Edward Henry Harriman that with all faults and frailties, says The Wall Street Journal, he was one of our greatest and most useful citizens. "The evil that men do lives after them; the good is oft interred with their bones"; but the evil which E. H. Harriman may have done in the course of his long fight to attain supremacy in the railroad field will not live for any long time, while the good is patent to all men in the great railroad system which he built up, and the great example which he set for other railroads to follow.

It is too early to discuss at length a career so complex and difficult, but it may at least be said that E. H. Harriman represented in his own person the most important movement for better methods in railroad management which the United States has seen. When the Union Pacific railroad was sold under foreclosure in the reconstruction period following the panic of 1893, the theory held by a very considerable section of the financial district was that a railroad existed to be reconstructed, by one or another of a number of prominent financial interests, about every ten years. That was not Mr. Harriman's theory of railroad management.

It is true that such as the Pennsylvania, Illinois Central and others have a long record of probity and good management; but we are only a little way from the time when railroads as a rule were run with one eye on the stock ticker. However heavily Mr. Harriman may have been interested in the stock market at times, it did not influence his judgment in any way when he was building up the great properties which he controlled.

He needs no apology. He dies at a comparatively early age for a man of affairs, but he dies with the respect and admiration of men to whom his name was a symbol for a very questionable class of finance not many years ago. He shouldered an ugly burden where others shirked it at the time of the life insurance investigations. Men who condemned E. H. Harriman then will admit now that he was among the first to adapt himself to cleaner and wiser methods of finance.

It is reported that Senator L. W. Zimm of St. Augustine is seriously considering becoming a candidate for Congress. This is conclusive evidence that our esteemed friend's health has been completely restored since the adjournment of the last session of the Legislature, for certainly no man not in the best of health would seriously consider contesting with Frank Clark for the seat the latter now holds in Congress. Clark is acknowledged as the best debater in Florida, and the man who meets him on the stump must be in condition, both physically and mentally, to undergo a very strenuous campaign. We have mingled with people from every section of this Congressional district during the past two months, people for and against Clark, and we have no hesitancy in asserting, even thus far in advance of the primary, that Frank Clark will be his own successor in Congress.

Has the North Pole been found, or not? Dr. Cook says he has discovered it, while Peary disputes this and says that the honor is all his. For our part, we do not know, but one thing is sure, Dr. Cook has, throughout the whole controversy, acted a perfect gentleman, while Commander Peary has allowed his greed for glory to get the better of his wisdom, as shown in his bitter telegram reflecting upon the Brooklyn doctor's alleged achievement.

The pennant race in the two big leagues, while not so close as last year, is yet exciting a great deal of interest and conjecture. At the present Pittsburgh is leading in the National, with Chicago a close second, while Detroit heads the American, with the Philadelphia Athletics only a few points behind. Although it looks like Pittsburgh and Detroit, the result is not at all certain, as the Chicago team, for the past two years champions of the world, will endeavor to do its utmost to beat the Smoky City out of the lead. Personally, we would like to see Pittsburgh and Philadelphia win, and then see the two Pennsylvania cities lock horns for the championship of the world.

The season for football has again opened, and it will only be a short while before the gridiron stars will again be in evidence. A number of the players and "near-players" are going to be hurt—some for life, while a dozen or less will probably be killed. In view of the accidents involved the question is naturally asked: "Is it worth while?" and yet football is a great game; it trains the player to think quickly, to act on his own resources, to have confidence in himself; it develops his physical condition, makes him strong and active, gives him exercise, and furnishes an outlet for that superfluous energy with which every normal youth is endowed.

According to their sworn statements, the campaign for Governor of Virginia cost Judge W. H. Mann $11,000, while Harry St. George Tucker, who was defeated, spent a cool $15,000. This certainly makes the high office of Governor available only to the rich man, or to the unscrupulous one who proposes to make back his campaign expenses by some other way than by drawing his salary. The present tendency is to practically eliminate the man in moderate circumstances from candidacy for the high offices on account of the enormous expense involved.

Every time Chicago's census figures are mentioned New York feels inclined to look around for more boroughs to annex.

The steamer "Colorado," of the Mallory Line, brought over on her last voyage the first large importation of coffee which ever came direct from the coffee fields of South America to Tampa. ## INDIGESTION?

ACCIDENT AT WADE.

Ed Dennis Lost Three Fingers in Peculiar Manner Saturday.

WADE, Sept. 13.—Mr. Ed Dennis, engineer for Phosphate Plant No. 1 of the Mutual Mining Company, near Wade, was painfully injured Saturday night, losing three fingers off of one of his hands from the result of a load of small shot, fired by an unknown negro. It seemed that Mason Philpot, another employe at the mine, had some difficulty with the negro. The negro going to his house and returning with his shotgun, fired at Mason, and the load struck Dennis in the hand.

Dr. J. M. Anderson performed the operation on the hand, and has the patient resting easy.

A WARNING.

Since its introduction into the United States, the sales of Parisian Sage have been phenomenal. This success has led to many imitations similar in name. Look out for them, they are not the genuine. See that the girl with the auburn hair is on every package. You can always get the genuine at W. M. Johnson's.

Parisian Sage is the quickest acting and most efficient hair tonic in the world.

It is made to conform to Dr. Sanger-bond's (of Paris) proven theory that dandruff, falling hair, baldness and scalp itch are caused by germs.

Parisian Sage kills these dandruff germs and removes all trace of dandruff in two weeks; it stops falling hair and itching scalp and prevents baldness.

And remember that baldness is caused by dandruff germs, those little hard-working, persistent devils that day and night do nothing but dig into the roots of the hair and destroy its vitality.

Parisian Sage is a daintily perfumed hair dressing; not sticky or greasy, and any woman who desires luxuriant and bewitching hair can get it in two weeks by using it.

Beware of imitations, look for the girl with the auburn hair on every package. Parisian Sage is now sold by leading druggists all over America and is guaranteed by W. M. Johnson to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back. Fifty cents a large bottle. Made in America by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who will fill mail orders, all charges prepaid.

To Be Happy

You must have good health. You can't have good health if your liver is not doing its duty—slow but sure poisoning is going on all the time under such circumstances. Ballard's Herbine makes a perfectly healthy liver—keeps the stomach and bowels right and acts as a tonic for the entire system. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

The owl may not be as wise as he looks, but he is wise enough not to try to work both the night and day shifts.—Atchison Globe.

MAJOR TENCH RETURNS.

Delivered an Address Before Surviving Comrades at Rome, Ga.

Major John W. Tench arrived Sunday noon via the A. C. L. from North Georgia, where he has been visiting old friends and relatives, some of whom he had not seen since the close of the war between the States.

Principally the Major's visit was made in acceptance of an invitation from the survivors of two regiments of his old brigade, the First and Sixth Georgia Cavalry, to address them at their annual reunion at Rome on the 18th ult.

The Major was unanimously chosen the commander of the association for the ensuing year. That his address was highly thought of the association, ordered it to be printed in pamphlet form, and requested its insertion in the Rome papers and in The Confederate Veteran.

Since the Major returned he has received notice of his appointment on the staff of General Clement Evans, Commander in Chief of the United Confederate Veterans of the entire South.

He reports Georgia in the van guard of material prosperity. He says he was never out of sight of the smoke from the funnels of her factories and iron mills, nor out of hearing of the rumble and roar of the wheels of her industries.

Compliment to Miss Beal.

Miss Estelle Beal, the clever and obliging stenographer and assistant clerk in the office of County Clerk Wienges, is being constantly rewarded by some friend for her accommodating manner, which she always acknowledges modestly with an expression of appreciation.

But one of the most highly appreciated favors it has yet been the pleasure of Miss Beal to acknowledge was a fine bonnet, most tastefully trimmed, which was the joint gift of two friends, one of whom purchased the hat, while the other decorated it with the rich trimmings.

Miss Beal, while appreciating the bonnet, feels more deeply grateful for the high regard in which she is held by friends and patrons of the office.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

TELEPHONE TALKS

The Long Distance System

One of the most valuable features of our service, to our subscribers and to the public generally, is our connection with the extensive long distance lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company and the other associated Bell Telephone companies.

We own thousands of miles of long distance lines in the seven States in which we operate and in addition can connect any telephone in our system with lines extending to any other city in which a Bell Telephone system is operated.

These long distance lines are of the most modern and improved construction and are maintained at a high state of efficiency. The Bell system, operating in various sections of the country, are uniform in their equipment and in their methods of operating.

Only by reason of this close traffic arrangement between the Bell Telephone companies is it possible to go to a Bell Telephone almost anywhere, ask for "Long Distance" and be put in communication with almost any point in the country.

This vast network of wires, radiating throughout the nation, is used daily in commerce and for social purposes by the banker, the farmer and citizens in all walks of life and our plant here is an important link in this great chain.

AFTER THE BATTLE.

An Incident That Seemed to Explain Joshua's Miracle.

There was an incident in our life at Brandy, connected with Gettysburg, which is worth relating. Batchelder, whose map of the battlefield of Gettysburg is authority and whom we had fallen in with while we were there, asked to join our mess at Brandy when he came to the army to verify the positions of the various commands. One night we had just sat down to dinner when he entered our big hospital tent, quite tired.

"Well," he announced after taking his place at the table, "I have been down in the Second corps today, and I believe I have discovered how Joshua made the sun stand still. I first went to — regiment and had the officers mark on the map the hour of their position at a certain point. Then I went to — regiment in the same brigade. They declared positively it was one or two hours earlier or later than that given by the other. So it went on, no two regiments or brigades agreeing, and if I hinted that some of them must certainly be mistaken they would set me down by saying with severe dignity, 'We were there, Batchelder, and we ought to know, I guess,' and I made up my mind that it would take a day of at least twenty hours instead of thirteen at Gettysburg to satisfy their accounts. So when Joshua's captains got around him after the fight and they began to talk it over the only way under the heavens that he could ever harmonize their statements was to make the sun stand still and give them all a chance."

Any one who has ever tried to establish the exact position or hour when anything took place in an engagement will confirm Batchelder's experience and possibly, if not too orthodox, accept his explanation of Joshua's feat. —Morris Schaff in Atlantic.

A MONSTER SKULL.

One That Was Said to Be Bigger Than a Bushel Basket.

One of the most remarkable finds of gigantic human remains of which we have any record was that said to have been made at Palermo, Sicily, in the year 1516, when an entire skeleton of unheard of proportions was unearthed by some marble quarry men. These mammoth remains measured exactly thirty-four feet from head to foot and nine feet seven inches from point to point of the shoulders.

A stone ax buried with this old time giant may still be seen at Palermo in section "Z" of the St. Isoret museum. It is made of a bluish looking, fine grained bowlder and appears to be about two feet eight inches long by one foot broad and nine inches through in the thickest place. A rusty, rusty looking tag attached to the relic informs the visitor that it weighs fifty-two pounds, but the general verdict is that it could not weigh over thirty or thirty-five pounds.

The skeleton was burned by a mob in the year 1602 during the prevalence of the black death at Palermo, the ignorant, superstitious people believing that it was connected in some mysterious way with the death dealing distemper. The skull of this giant, according to Abbe Ferregus, "was largely excessive of the baskets said to hold the bushel, being fitted above and below with teeth to the number of sixty-four, the each of which would have weighed two ounces."

Cavaller Scroy claimed to have found a skull on Tenerife that had sixty teeth. —Westminster Gazette.

And All With Company There. "Now, children," said the mother as a whole roomful of company had ex- in, "suppose you run off and play by yourselves."

"All right, mother," replied Edith "Can we go up and play Hamlet and Ophelia?"

"Certainly," smiled the mother, while her guests looked on at the tableau.

"Goodly," replied Edith. Then, turning to her sister, she said, "Now Maude, you run up to mamma's room and get all her false hair that you can find." —Ladies' Home Journal.

Played it to the Limit.

Many writers have declared that an Irish gentleman's hospitality is unlimited, but this is a slight exaggeration, as is shown by a story borrowed from a book of Irish memories.

Jerry McArtie was often the guest of friends who on account of his pleasant ways extended to him that sort of old Irish hospitality which enabled a visitor in my own family who came for a fortnight to stay for six years.

In McArtie's case the visit stretched to nearly double that time. After eight or nine years, however, his kinsman got a little tired of his guest and let him know of his old mansion's proposed renovation and that he had signed a contract for having it painted from garret to cellar.

"By George," said Jerry, "it's fortunate that I don't object to the smell of paint, and it will be well to have some one to keep an eye on the painters now that the wall fruit is ripening."

Some months passed. Then his host informed him that he was going to be married, adding, "I thought I'd tell you in good time, so that you could make leisurely preparations to go, as the lady and you may not hit it off as well as you and I do."

With tearful eyes Jerry grasped his cousin's hand, saying:

"Oh, Dan, dear, you have my hearty thanks for your consideration; but, dear, dear boy, surely if you can put up with her I can."

Woodchopping as a Sport.

In Tasmania is to be found a national pastime that is special and particular to that state alone—the sport of woodchopping. It says much for the grit and vigor of Tasmanians that this really serious and arduous work should be regarded as the finest sport. At Hobart and Launceston they have their turf meetings, their cricket, football, golf, cycling, and so forth, but to a woodchopping contest people will flock from far and near—men, women and children—and watch the ax wielders hewing away at huge blocks of timber as if life and reputation depended upon the issue. Thud, thud, thud, go the axes, and the splinters fly in all directions, the judges calmly sitting near, taking notes of the strokes the spectators cheering the competitors from time to time as frantically as if they were race horses. To be a woodchopping champion means something to a man in Tasmania. —Dundee Advertiser.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dizziness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

GAINESVILLE, —THE— University City.

Gainesville is conceded to be the most enterprising as well as the most beautiful city in the interior of Florida. It is located in the very center of the State, half way between the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts, surrounded by lands of such fertility as to be capable of producing a great variety of crops; in the heart of the truck-growing, phosphate and naval stores belt. She has the best educational advantages in the State, good churches, with edifices which are superior to any town of its size in Florida, with large and consistent congregations; has a climate which cannot be excelled for health and pleasure. All these natural advantages, combined with a progressive and enterprising cosmopolitan citizenship, are sure to make a big city.

There are many natural attractions in close proximity to the city, some of which are Alachua Sink, Paine's Prairie, the Devil's Mill Hopper, Warren's Cave, and Lake Newnan, all of which are reached by private conveyance.

Spring Park Stock Farm, the largest and finest live stock farm in the State, is only eight miles west of the city and is reached by a good hard road, affording a most pleasant drive.

The farmers of Alachua county, of which Gainesville is the county seat, "live at home and board at the same place." The temperature is very uniform, scarcely ever reaching the nineties in summer or the twenties in winter. The population of Gainesville is about eight thousand, representing nearly every nationality on the face of the earth, and strangers always meet with a hearty welcome.

The University of Florida for young men and the National Agricultural Experiment Station are located within the corporate limits of the city. In fact, Gainesville has so many things that we must be pardoned if we omit

Who Pays For Your Printing?

Poor printing is a detriment to any business, and is an unprofitable investment. Poor printing is usually paid for twice—once when you settle with the printer, and again in the injury it does your business.

GOOD PRINTING PAYS FOR ITSELF!

In the added business it brings, in the complete satisfaction you feel in sending out neat, tasty stationery, and its first cost is soon on the credit side of the ledger. Good printing is remembered long after the price is forgotten.
